

Biography LORD FUNK

In collaboration with the BMG , Africa Seven labels, Celluloid's career began at the end of the 80s His sets are scented with luscious Breaks, House, Boogie, Electro , Disco Rap, Soul Funk, Afro & Latin Groove

Early 90s he founded the USA MUSIC store in Paris, radio host on (Transat Fm) in "l'Archipel Du Funk" & Rinse for 3 years, after several compilations of B-Sides and Rarities and DJ at "Wax Groove" monthly appointment for 6 years at the New casino next to Erik Rug where he highlights the facets of his collection.

He leaves for New York where he joins forces with Phillip Lehman to create Wagram Records, promote his label "St Germain Des Prés" and emancipate Desco Records with the "Dap-Kings", from orchestration to distribution, which will become none other than the "Dap-Kings" of Sharon Jones & Lee Fields but also, Antibalas, Menahan street band ..... In parallel we offer him to take in management "A1 Records Shop" where he was the " official supplier "of records and loops of the biggest electro and hiphop producers such as Fat Boy Slim, Masters At Works, Warren G, Cypress Hill, Clark Kent, Deee-Lite, Massive Attack, Q Tip, Bob Sinclar, Quest Love, Cassius, Just Blaze or Alchemist, Madlib. ... All came to A1's in New York, the former stronghold of the Lord of Funk. On the production side, he collaborates on the sound illustration of several films, Pub / TV with Frank Gastambide, Romain Gavras & Kim Chapiron among others ...

Compo and coordinator around his young label Boogie Butt Records, he produces for Clarence "Blowfly" Reid, The Real Fake MC, Bruno "Patchworks" Hovart, Opolopo
